

OSA mascot design contest

Summary

Open Space Arts is hosting a mascot design contest to create character designs that represent the Visual Arts, Performance Arts, and Applied Arts. These characters will serve as mascots for OSA and will be used to raise awareness of the arts in (PWC). You can draw these characters as superheroes or actors in a drama. How you can build these characters is totally up to your imagination and creativity.

Guidelines:

- The contest is open to everyone in PWC.
- Character designs should be original and creative.
- Character designs should represent the Visual Arts, Performance Arts, or Applied Arts.
- Character designs can be drawn as superheroes, actors in a drama, or any other creative concept.
- Character designs should be submitted in digital format (JPEG, PNG, or PDF).
- Submissions should include a brief description of the character's personality and backstory.
- The deadline for submissions is [Nov 15th].

Judging Criteria

- Originality and creativity of the design
- Representation of the Visual Arts, Performance Arts, or Applied Arts
- Overall visual appeal
- Brief description of the character's personality and backstory

Winners will

- feature on the OSA website
- feature on the OSA social media channels
- feature in the OSA newsletter
- Prize bag from OSA

How to Submit

Submissions should be emailed to [thenovaartsociety@gmail.com] by [Nov 15th].

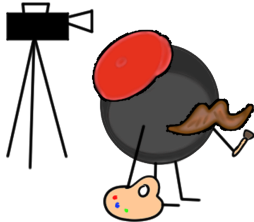

Funding

The winning designs will be used to create a series of merchandise, such as t-shirts, mugs, and stickers. The proceeds from the sale of this merchandise will be used to fund arts programs in PWC.

Additional Information

For more information about the contest, please visit the OSA website <https://www.openspaceartspwc.com/> or contact [thenovaartsociety@gmail.com]

Examples

This is Viz, vis in latin means visual. Viz is into everything that concerns the visual arts from filming, to painting, to digital animation. they are very passionate creative always looking for his muse that will help them create a masterpiece.

This is Skene, taken from the greek term for a scene building or theater. Skene is a true thespian and is inspired by all things in the world of performance arts. Poetry, music, acting, comedy and Dancing. Skene is always in character and looking for an audience.

This is La Mode. La Mode in French means fashionable and stylish. La mode is involved in everything that involves the applied arts. La Mode cannot be caught dead in something plain Jane and stays on top of new trends and designs. La mode explores fashion, interior design and architecture.